BEST BILL BURR QUOTES

- I’m trying to get away from trashing women, to be honest. I think I’ve done enough of that in my career.
- I’ve been guilty of being in the writers’ room and going too dark; other people have gone too wacky and zany.
- I'm trying to get away from trashing women, to be honest. I think I've done enough of that in my career.
- A plumber doesn’t change the way he plumbs when he has a kid. You’re a comedian. This is your style.
- I think it's a privilege to be able to fly to somewhere where people want to see my show.
- My favorite kind of humor is basically, if it was happening to you, it wouldn’t be funny, but to observe it, it’s hilarious.
- I can’t quite remember who I voted for president. It wasn’t Trump or Hillary, though. I didn’t like either one of them.
- I’m not going to lie. I am a psycho. Luckily, I get most of it out on stage.
- I have friends in this business who put pictures of their kids on Facebook. That’s not something I would do.
- I bet The Walking Dead gets really low ratings out in Montana, just because all they need to do is look out their f-king window, am I right?
- I've been guilty of being in the writers' room and going too dark; other people have gone too wacky and zany.
- Oh look, an ATM! Ok, here we go! I lost all my money, now what do I do? Get a gun! Rob a casino! Good idea! Look at all the lights! This is beautiful.
- Do you know how many times a week people ask me why I’m yelling?

versesquotes.com